We except deposit to hold the puppy of your choice until old enough to go home with you. We also have a payment plan in which case we would except deposits on also. Deposits are excepted in three forms money order, cashier checks or personal check (will not be excepted for final payment unless otherwise agreed upon). Deposits for waiting list are transferable to any puppy, from any litter as long as a deposit has not already been accepted on said puppy. All puppies must be picked up or shipped by the time they are 10 weeks (unless special arrangements have been made). There are no refunds on deposits!!! The deposit shows the intent of the buyer to follow through with the purchase of the puppy. Only time money will be refunded is if some unfortunate thing happens and the puppy dies.

I have read the above statements and am in total agreement of this contract as evidence of my signature below. I understand that the contract is legal and binding.
